6. How do I process a claim for a cash paying patient with the Toujeo® Rx Savings Card?
The Toujeo® Rx savings card will work for patients paying with cash. Input the card information as primary coverage and transmit the claim. If you have any issues, please call the McKesson help line at 1-866-390-5622.

7. How does the Rx savings card work depending on formulary status?
Regardless of formulary status and restrictions, the Rx savings card should work for commercially insured patients if it is input as secondary coverage. If you have any issues please call the McKesson help line at 1-866-390-5622.

8. How do I process a claim through the Toujeo® Rx savings card that is requiring a prior authorization?
If a prior authorization (PA) is required, please follow your normal process to submit the request for the prior authorization and obtain the PA from the plan. Once the PA is obtained, the Rx savings card can be processed. Sanofi offers support for processing Prior Authorizations through the Sanofi Patient Connection Program. Pharmacists, patients, and physicians can contact Sanofi Patient Connection at 1-888-847-4877, with live support available M-F 9:00am-8:00pm EST.

9. Does the Toujeo® Rx savings card work for patients with a high deductible commercial plan?
Yes, the claim should be submitted with the patient’s insurance as the primary coverage and the savings card as the secondary coverage. If the patient is in the deductible phase, the savings card will help pay down the patient’s deductible.

10. Does the Toujeo® Rx Savings card work for patients who are insured by a Health Insurance Exchange through the Affordable Care Act?
Health Insurance Exchanges are considered a commercial program, not a government program. Therefore, patients participating in the exchanges and that meet all other qualifications are eligible for the co-pay program.

11. Who should I contact if I’m having issues processing the Toujeo® Rx savings card?
If you are having any issues processing the savings card, contact McKesson customer service at the DiabetesSanofi Rx Savings Card dedicated number: 1-866-390-5622
